1941

Dedication

To one who has always been so dear and grand,
And whose untiring energies have greatly helped to guide us to the point where we now stand -
We, the seniors of nineteen hundred forty one,
Take great pleasure in dedicating this volume of
"Treasured Memories" to the one,
Who is sponsor of our class, Miss Lillian A. Minkel.

Principal

To Mr. E. Armstrong Smith,
our faithful principal, leader, and companion.

We, the Senior Class, wish to extend our feeling of gratefulness and appreciation.

SENIORS

David Walker

David, the best all round, is liked by all,
He's very athletic and rather tall.
When David's in a hurry, you know full well
He's going to ring the high school bell.

Annette Ayres

Little, athletic, artistic Annette.
She usually finds what she sets out to get.
She is not so tall, but she counts just the same,
And we know her work will win her fame.

Loreen Agee

Our blue-eyed blonde Loreen, plays the piano
as we have seen.
She'll study music in college we are told,
So we know she won't let the piano get cold.
She's going as high as she can go, and we know
That she will succeed, so keep going, "Lo".

Conrad Dodl

Conrad, or Jody, is bashful, they say,
But of course he's not always that way.
He's quiet, dignified, studious, and neat.
To meet someone like Conrad is really a treat.

Bessie Johnston

Bessie, or Puddy, is a friend ofall,
She's plump and pleasant and not very tall.
She's happy, friendly, and jolly each day,
And rain or shine she's always that way.

Dramatic Club,2,3,4; Home Ec.,3,4; Glee Club,4; Treas. of the paper,4; Class Editor,4; May Court,4.

Marion Beasley

Marion, our lovely, musical queen,
Has the browmest eyes you've ever seen.
We all like Marion's friendly ways,
And we'll remember her to the end of our days.

Harley Easter

Harley, the most studious one of them all,
Is not very short and not very tall.
I think the recipe that made him grow,
Was studying blended with a ball or so.

Eliza Oertel

She is blond, her eyes are blue.
She's quite athletic and friendly, too.
Eliza is fair and rather tall,
Her favorite game is basketball.

Florence is her name, but we call her "Flo".
She is very athletic as we all know.
She is full of pep, and attractive too,
And one thing certain, she's never blue.

Howard Walker

Howard is short and quiet and neat.
His accommodating ways are hard to beat.
He is called "big boy", but believe me,
He is just as small as he can be.

FFA,1,2,3,4; Glee Club,4; Manager of Baseball Team,4

Bula Haynes

Bula is artistic and friendly, too.
Her hair is blond, her eyes are blue.
She's very musical as everyone knows,
For she makes music wherever she goes.

John Mathews

John is quiet, witty, and small.
This may be the reason he likes to play ball.
But here comes something that is really true,
Johnny is a pitcher through and through.

Louvenia Huddleston

Louvenia belongs on a page by herself
For her poetry kept the Seniors off the shelf.
We certainly are not as poetic as she,
But in her praise we are as sincere as can be.

JOHN RANDOLPH ADIEU

John Randolph, our old friend so true,
We've now come to bid you adieu.
There's a tear in each eye and a sigh in each heart
To think that from you, dear friend, we must part.
The years we've been with you seem few,
And we've made many friends who are true.
We think of hours spent within thy walls
And gay young voices heard in thy halls.
Those memories will live with us many a year,
And those memories will bring us moments of cheer.

The time has come for us to part,
Upon life's road so soon we'll start.
Who knows how they will end - these careers we're starting,
Yet the thought of our future dims the hurt of our parting.
Now we must start upon life's road,
And each must carry his separate load
Of joy and sorrow and laughter and tears.
Of things to come we have no fears,
For we have been trained to take things as they come.
We know there will be honor and praise for some.
We hope that each will find some joy in his life work,
And none his duty will ever shirk.

Class History

In the fall of nineteen hundred thirty-seven, twenty timid freshmen entered the high school department of John Randolph. On our arrival we were greeted by Mrs. Watkins, our new home room teacher. Here we found two students, Travis Daulton and Willie Bowles, who stayed with us part of the year. The class elected the following officers: President, Harley Easter; Vice President, Loreen Agee; Secretary, Mary Virginia Micou; and Treasurer, Marion Beasley. The freshman year was very uneventful, except for the fact that Loreen Agee and Marion Beasley were in the May Court.

Upon entering the sophomoreclass we were greeted by Miss Scott. Another set of very capable officers were elected - namely, President, Harley Easter; Vice President, Marion Beasley; Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Virginia Micou. In the May Court, Marion Beasley represented the class. Several members of the Class participated in baseball as substitutes and part-time players, among them, Harley Easter, George Crowder, Marvin Stimpson, and David Walker. David Dickerson resumed his regular position as shortstop.

After returning from a very short three months summer vacation, we hardly recognized one another, we had grown so much. With Mrs. Putney as our sponsor we began a very successful year. We gained one student and lost one during this year. Meriwether Putney from Farmville joined us, and Ruth Perkins left us for she had decided to become a "Mrs.". The following officers were elected: President, Marion Beasley; Vice President, David Walker; Secretary and Treasurer, Loreen Agee. We were very sorry to learn that Mary Virginia Micou had moved away. We again showed our athletic ability with Eliza Oertel playing the guard position on the girls' basketball team and Annette Ayres and Florence Moore substitutes. The following boys represented the Junior Class on baseball and basketball teams: Marvin Stimpson, Harley Easter, Meriwether Putney, David Dickerson, George Crowder, and David Walker. The members of our class in the May Day Celebration were Howard Walker, Eliza Oertel, Harley Easter, Marion Beasley, Meriwether Putney, Bula Haynes, Conrad Dodl, Loreen Agee, and David Walker. The last big event in the year of 1940 was the junior-senior party.

After waiting three long years we finally became dignified seniors, with Miss Minkel as our class sponsor. Although only sixteen in number, we planned for a busy year. We missed David Dickerson, our star shortstop on the baseball team. Officers of the Class were: President, David Walker; Vice President, Annette Ayres; Secretary, Loreen Agee; Treasurer, Conrad Dodl. John Matthews, the "smoke-ball" pitcher was a valuable addition in sports. In the May Day exercises all of the senior girls participated and all of the boys except three. The presentation of an Operetta, in which all the seniors took part, and the production of our school annual, "Treasured Memories", kept us busy the remainder of the year.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Rev. A. L. Laine on Sunday, June 1st, and other commencement exercises were held June 5th and 6th. Dr. George Wesley Jones gave theccommencemont address.

In behalf of the senior class, I wish to say we have enjoyed being at John Randolph these eleven years and our only regret is that we can no longer be with you, but must seek a place in this wide world, for which you teachers have so capably prepared us.

Valedictory

Beloved parents, teachers, friends, and fellow classmates. Tonight as we approach the close of our High School Education, there is not only a challenge but a real crisis in the lives of each and every one as we stand at the crossroads of life, hesitating and uncertain which way to go. We can look back into the past but the future is unknown. We, as a group of students, have been attending school daily for the past eleven years or more to secure the knowledge that will enable us to map out this unknown realm which we now face. We have been building the foundation and now we are ready to take up greater enterprises in a new and unconquered field. We realize our responsibility because we know that the future of this great nation rests upon the youth of today.

For many years we have looked forward to this occasion tonight, not the end, but the commencement of our lives. We are aware of the fact that we have done a very good job thus far, but we will strive to do still better in the future. We feel that we cannot enter this new phase of our lives without first thanking our parents and friends for the wonderful opportunity of beginning our careers with the valuable preparation which they have made possible to us. They have always been glad to help us solve the problems that were too complex for us.

Members of the faculty, we cannot find words great enough to express our thanks and appreciation to you. Throughout the past years you have been laboring patiently to mold qualities and characteristics into our lives which have made us better individuals. Many times in later life will it be necessary for us to rely upon the instruction which you have given us here at John Randolph. We have come to the point where we now stand under your very capable direction and we will miss your guiding hand as we go out into this unconquered world which now stands before us.

We have reached the end of our high school life and now the time has come for us to go forth and prepare our own places in the world. We are sad because it is time for us to separate from our school friends but the future is before us. We have a wider field to enter with greater opportunities to make new friends. Although we may be separated bodily we will always be united in spirit. Our love and fellowship will be sweeter, deeper, and more genuine. As we go forth, may our standard always be worthy of that of John Randolph, the school of our hearts.

Freshman Highlights

Music:

There are three of the Freshman Class who are in the Glee Club. They are: Minnie Oertel, John M. Smith, and Deane Dodl.

Dramatics:

Margie Hyatt, Betty Spillman, Agnes Ayres, Harold Easter, John Smith, and Minnie Oertel represent our class in the Dramatic Club.

The eighth grade also gave a one-act play for the assembly, entitled "My Ladies Lace". The characters were: Margie Hyatt, Joy Orange, Helen Huddleston, and Minnie Oertel.

We all haven't had a chance to do any acting, but in years to come, LOOK OUT.

Library Club:

Many of our class are members of the Library Club. The members are: Margie Hyatt, Minnie Oertel, Agnes Ayres, Betty Spillman, Joy Orange, and John M. Smith. John M. Smith is the secretary of this club.

Athletics:

Our class team was victorious in the annual basketball game with the Seventh Grade.

Harold Easter and Willis Moore are on the Baseball Squad. Billie Brown is a substitute.

Other Highlights:

Two boys are escorts in the May Day exercises. They are Jack Jacobs and Deane Dodl.

Margie Hyatt, Betty Spillman, Agnes Ayres, and Mrs. Watkins attended the S. C. A. meeting held at S. T. C. of Farmville. They were in different discussion groups. Betty and Agnes were in the group entitled "Developing Good Citizens". Margie was in the one entitled "Students Self Improvement".

The Seventh Grade entertained us on "Washington's Birthday".
